Basketball has been a lifelong passion that has shaped my values of discipline, teamwork, and leadership. I believe these qualities, together with my dedication to the sport, allow me to serve effectively the Basketball Association of Singapore. My vision is to contribute to the growth of basketball at all levels nurturing grassroots development, supporting players' pathways, and promoting a strong culture of sportsmanship and inclusivity.

By combining my love for the game with my commitment to community service, I aim to help strengthen the Association's role in building a vibrant future for Singapore basketball.
